MARTIN WAR OF 1812 PENSIONS

The Index to War of 1812 pensioners was begun in Volume II, p. 8 and continued on pages 33, 34 and 36. We continue here with that index.

The pension index is contained in 102 rolls of microfilm and all of the Martins are on Roll 63 of this series. Most of the pensions contain the age, residence, service, place of enlistment and rank of the soldiers. Widow's applications usually give the age of the widow, her maiden name, date and place of marriage and date and place of veteran's death and sometimes more genealogical information.

The pensions can be ordered from the National Archives. Write them and ask them to send you several copies of form #GSA-6751. Fill this form out with the information listed below and they will forward the pension application and will bill you $3.00 for each application.

ABRAM MARTIN DESCENDANTS

In Volume II, #4 the wills of Abram Martin and Elizabeth Marshall Marti were added to the family tree. These wills were included in Genealogy of the Martin, Marshall & Edwards Families Who Settled in Va. and of the Quin Family of Miss., a typescript dated 21 January 1939, New York by Jesse E. White.

Mr. White's typescript, which is in the possession of the Latter-Day-Saints Library in Salt Lake City, includes (1) a list of the children of Abram Martin and Elizabeth Marshall and some of the grandchildren. (2) A few pages concerning the Martin family in the 1600's (3) Some historical facts concerning John Martin 1683-1756 of King William Co., Va. (4) 3 pages of entries from the Charlotte Co., Va. Order Books concerning Martins (5) extensive data on the Marshall family (6) Edwards Genealogy - including descendants of Letitia Martin who married Edward Wade and Charles Edwards. (7) Three old family letters.

Jesse White was a descendant of Letitia Martin and her descendants were his primary interest. He did an excellent job of documenting the Edwar family, but not Letitia's brothers.

LETITIA, DAU. OF ABRAM & ELIZABETH MARSHALL MARTIN

Letitia Martin, daughter of Abram and Elizabeth Marshall Martin was bor 25 Sept. 1747 according to the Abram Martin Bible. Through numerous court records we know that the family was living in Caroline Co., Va. a the time. Mr. White concluded from his research that she died before March 1797 in Halifax Co., Va. Letitia (called Letty) married first 15 Oct. 1768 according to Charlotte Co., Va. marriage records but the Abra

Martin Bible says she married Edward Wade 10 Oct. 1769. Edward Wade was born 27 Jan. 1745 according to the Abram Martin Bible and he died 17 Sept. 1776 in Halifax Co., Va. The will of Edward Wade was made 11 Feb. 1776 and proved 19 Sept. 1776 in Halifax Co., Va. Legates were his widow, Letty Wade, dau. Betsy Wade and sons: William, Abram and Edward Washington Wade. Executors were: Merercan Hunt, William Rawlings, William Stokes and Sam'l Perrin. Witnesses: Charles, William and Ann Wade and P. Moss. Edward Wade was killed in action in the Revolutionary War.

Mr. White noted in his research that Letitia's brother, Barkley Martin, was made guardian for her Edwards children in a suit May 1806, but no place was given for this entry. He added in his footnotes that she moved with her Edwards children to S. C. before 1797 and that A. M. Wade moved to S. C. in 1794 and to Miss. in 1806.

Children of Letitia Martin and Edward Wade:

1. William Wade married Miss Booker and died young.
2. Abraham Martin Wade b. ca. 1772 married Martha Garrett in 96th Dist., S. C. and died July 1816, Miss. Territory.
3. Edward Washington Wade, b. ca. 1774 married Sallie Lamar. He received a bounty warrant 1 Jan. 1838 for 3480 acres of land for his father's service in the Revolution, being the only heir.
4. Betsy Wade, b. ca. 1776; died young.

Letitia Martin married second 30 April 1779 in Halifax Co., Va. to Lt. Charles Edwards who was born 26 Jan. 1726/7 in New Kent Co., Va. His birth is recorded in St. Peter's Register, New Kent Co., Va. He died 28 June 1790 in Halifax Co., Va. (note: He was a widower with 2 children when he married Letitia Martin Wade. The children's names were James and Leonard Edwards and they later moved to N. C.)

The will of Lt. Charles Edwards was dated 14 March 1785 and proved 28 June 1790 in Halifax Co., Va. It is recorded in Book 2, page 405.

Legatees: Wife, Letty - life estate 1/3 part
Sons: James, Leonard, Charles
Dau.: Mary, deceased, with living children
Other children mentioned but not named
Brother: Thomas living in North Carolina
Executors: Wife, Letty, Thomas Edwards & Samuel Clay
Witnesses: Sam'l Clay, Wm. Hircom, Halcott Townes
Bondsmen: Nichols Clardy, Robt. Hampton & Stephen Wade
Will shows that James Edwards was of age but Leonard and Charles were not. James Edwards' name first appears on the tax list of the southern dist. of Halifax Co., Va. in 1784.

In St. Peter's Register, New Kent Co., Va. records "CHARLES ye son of THOMAS EDWARDS born Jany 26, 1726/7." Charles was a lieutenant in the Militia of N. C. during the Revolution. Records of N. C. Historical Commission show allowance by Auditors of Hillsborough Dist. in July 1783 "to Lieutenant Charles Edwards for Militia Services of Himself and Comp" £ 117.9.0 - From Accounts of U. S. with N. C. of Revolution Book C p. 88.

Children of Letitia Martin and Charles Edwards:

1. Mary Ann Hawkins Edwards, b. 1780 and died in Augusta, Ga. She married Britton Mims who died in 1833, Augusta, Ga. Britton was the son of Drury Mims.

2. Letty Edwards, b. ca. 1781, Halifax Co., Va. She married (1) Benjamin Breedlove and (2) Julius Nichols.
3. Robert Edwards
4. Charley Edwards, b. 23 March 1783, Halifax Co., Va.; d. 23 May 1842 Wilkinson Co., Miss. He married 8 April 1816 in Wilkinson Co., Miss, Jane Thomas who died 9 Sept. 1846.
5. Jesse Edwards, b. ca. 1787, Halifax Co., Va.; d. Sept. 1839, Wilkinson Co., Miss. He married (1) Sept. 1810, Edgefield Co., S. C., Elizabeth Moss and (2) Elizabeth Davis 28 Nov. 1833 in Wilkinson Co., Miss. Jesse's will was probated at Dec. Court 1839, Wilkinson Co., Miss. and recorded in Book 1, p. 214-217.
6. Charlcey Edwards, b. ca. 1789 in Halifax Co., Va.; married 3 Jan. 1806 in Halifax Co., Va., Drury Mims.

These letters included in Genealogy of the Martin, Marshall & Edwards Families Who Settled in Va. and of the Quin Family of Miss. No information was given concerning the location of these letters. [Editors comments]

Plantation, June 15, 1755

Dear Brother,

We are in much confusion and distress because of the burning of our outhouse last night. They have taken away every horse and fowl, and soon after they left, the barn was found to be burning. They did not come to the house and I do not think that they were Indians. Genl Braddock and Staff camped here last night. He informed Father Martin that Abram had taken his command to join Col. Washington on their way to Duquesne. I would it were so, that you and Mary could come here for a time. Two of the children have measles and Father Martin has the Dysentery and I am in bed with a baby three days old and too weak to get up. I fear the return of the enemy. Do come, if possible. We hav no horse to send for you. David will take this to you. I have brought all the blacks into the house.

(signed) Elizabeth Marshall Martin

[The three day old baby was Barclay Martin who was born 13 June 1756. Maybe the date of the letter was copied incorrectly or the date in the Bible is incorrect. If Father Martin referred to in the letter is Abram Martin's father,John Martin, then he was at their plantation in Caroline Co., Va. in 1755 and would have been about 72 years of age.]

Letter from John Marshall (Chief Justice) to his cousin Edmund Randolph Martin (son of Marshall Martin and grandson of Abram and Elizabeth Marshall Martin) referring to the death of Edmund's wife, Sally Jeter Martin). [Mr. White's notes say Edmund Randolph Martin, son of Capt. Marshall Martin and Mary Key, was born 28 Dec. 1784 and married 28 Jan. 1810, Sarah Jeter. Edmund had a twin brother, Thomas Marshall Martin, who died young].

March 1833

My dear Edmund,

Your letter was received with much sadness at the death of my beloved cousin, Sally. I sympathise with you deeply. The boys William and Charles are here and are winning favors for themselves. Their fine soldierly appearance and bearing would stir the heart of Aunt Elizabeth could she see them, and Ed, I believe she does. You had best come on and bring the plats with you. The papers are all right. You will have no difficulty. My health is very feeble now, so you come on to Richmond.

With affectionate greetings, I am your cousin

(signed) John Marshall

Charles is strikingly like Marshall in his uniform.

To Edmund Martin

(Note: (by Mr. White) William & Charles were sons of Edmund, aged 22 & 18 respectively, at the time).

Excerpts from a letter dated June 5, 1879, Shelbyville, Tenn. written by Senator B. M. Tillman quoting information given him by his mother-Rachel Puvall Martin Tillman, dau. of Matthew Martin (son of Abram) and his wife Sally Clay. [Rachel Puvall Martin, b. 16 May 1789 according to the Abram Martin Bible married John Tillman (1786-1854)]

"Abram Martin who married Betty Marshall and his family lived in Charlotte Co., Va. and moved to a place called 96 in S. C. Her aunt Letty and Uncle Edwards lived in the same county or in an adjoining county - in Va. Her Aunt Letty at the time she married Mr. Edwards was the widow Wade--her first husband Edward Wade having been killed-up on the Canadian border-leaving her a widow in Va. with four children--three sons and a daughter."

"Mother adds-after she was old enough to get to school at Martintown her Uncle Barkley Martin went to Va. and brought his sister Letty and her Edwards children to S. C. That she was a widow with five children--in order of ages: Mary Ann H.--Letty--Charles--Jesse--Charlcey Edwards."

"Mother further says that her old Aunt Rachel Martin, nee Rachel Clay (note: married Barkley Martin Mar. 21, 1780) said that soon after her marriage they went to see his sister Letty Edwards and her first Edwards child. Mary Ann Hawkins Edwards was then about ten days old."

[In Volume II, #2 when the Abram Martin series was begun I stated that it would be continued in the next five issues of the quarterly. Due to the amount of data on this family the series will be continued indefinitely]

Thomas married (2) WINEFRED SOUTHARD, mother of the three Southard children who married three of his children.

Thomas Martin was united with the regular Baptist church in Rush County when quite young and from that day until his death he was a worker in and for the church. In 1840 he went to Hancock County, Ind. bringing with him the letters of himself and wife from Raleigh Baptist Church. These were presented to the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church on the third Saturday of February, 1840. On May 31, 1840 he was elected deacon of the church and ordained as such the following June. In Nov. of the same year he was liberated to exercise in public as a licensed preacher, preaching his first sermon within a few days. Some time later the regular Baptists erected a church at Fortville, Ind. where he was the minister until 1862. At that time, Mt. Carmel, Sugar Creek and Whitewater joined and built a house of worship of which he was the minister for many years. During his entire life he was one of the tried and true Christians of Hancock County, Ind.

JOHN MARTIN

[In the early 1900's ladies who joined the DAR didn't have to present documented proof of their line to a Revolutionary Soldier. All that was required was proof of the man's service and the names of the line of descent to this soldier - even dates were sometimes omitted. The rules have become very strict over the years and every date of birth, marriage and death must be documented and proof papers submitted to Washington. Even though those early DAR papers had no documentation we must bear in mind that some of the ladies were granddaughters and great-granddaughters of Revolutionary Soldiers. They questioned their living relatives and consulted family Bibles and home records. They left us valuable papers even though some of the facts are incorrect. The records of John Martin, Revolutionary Soldier, follow with information from very early DAR papers in brackets to provide clues that may be of help]. References-end of set.

John Martin, b. 20 Feb. 1735, Goochland Co., Va. [early papers say he was born 20 Feb. 1747, Fluvanna Co.,Va.] All papers agree that he died sometime after Nov. 1830 in Clark Co., Ky. He resided in Fluvanna Co., Va. during the Revolution. He married 3 Jan. 1757 [1766] to RACHAEL PACE [PIERCE or PEACE] who was born 20 Feb. 1735 [1750] and died 26 Jan. 1820 [1821]. He was a 2nd Lieut. and defended Fort Boonesborough, Ky.

OBITUARY

GRAYVILLE INDEPENDENT, VOL. 18 - 20 APRIL 1876 (WHITE CO., ILL. Contributed by: Margaret Ann Gilbert, 6B Dundee Quarter #101, Palatine, Ill. 60067.

"A Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, aged 105 years, died in the poor house of Gibson County, Indiana, about a week ago. She was born in Virginia March 18, 1772. She was deserted by relatives at Princeton, a short time ago, they removing to Tennessee. The Vincennes Times gives the above, and it should now give the names of the inhuman relatives, their present residence--and hold them up to the scorn of detestation of Christendom."
